If you would like your child to attend the tryout and join Training Band in 2016 please complete the performance.

Lesson times are limited. Band equipment is $750 per semester and includes all re-reeds and sizes. All lessons are available at both schools will be taught out of school. Music lessons are $50 per half hour. A family has to pay for both schools and school fees.

Parents will also need to book students into weekly music lessons at a cost of around $55 per half hour.

Parents can be referred to local music stores.

Instrumental Some of the larger instruments can be hired from the school a minimal cost will be charged.

One instrument is recommended per student. Instrumental terms will receive information about where to source an instrument.

Common instruments and more available on instruments we need more of.

Each year students are expected to hire the music lessons. Less is expected on student choice, and the need to create a balanced band. Students are limited on more advanced students. Band students are also expected to hire weekly private music lessons. Our program is made up of the Training Band for beginners, Concert Band for students who have played for more than a year and Jazz Band, which is an invitation group that challenges more.

The bands perform at school events, Eisteddfod, the School Band Festival and NSW Music Eisteddfod.

The bands play a wide range of music including classical, jazz and pop.

NBN Bands is a growing Concert Band Program combining students from Narrmow and Penrith Public Schools. Combining students from both schools has allowed us to create a stronger, more academically inclined and music building program.
